How to Read this Map

This proportional symbol map shows 209 countries of the world using the equal-area Eckert IV projection. Each dataset record is represented by a circle centered at its geolocation. The area, interior color, and exterior color of each circle may represent numeric attribute values. Minimum and maximum data values are given in the legend.